Carlisle Weekly

As the Carlisle Weekly did last year, this year we once again dedicate and “Pink Out” the front page of the Carlisle Weekly in honor of those who have fought breast cancer, continue to fight breast cancer or have lost their battle with breast cancer.

Last year we had many stories on people who fought breast cancer and they shared their stories. This year the Carlisle Weekly decided to put faces with the disease. Those pictured above are mothers, sisters, daughter, granddaughters, grandmothers, nieces and aunts. They are leaders in the community, they are regular people and they cover every spectrum of society.

That is because breast cancer doesn’t care who you are, how much money you make, or how much good you do for your community. Breast cancer is a terrible disease that has affected us all in many ways and during the month of October, Breast Cancer Awareness Month, we salute and honor these brave women in their fight against this terrible disease.

In the month of October businesses in Carlisle County have flown pink flags in support of Breast Cancer Awareness Month and have put up posters to honor Breast Cancer Awareness Month and on October 27, 2012, there will be a special “Pretty in Pink” Brunch at the Christian Outreach Center at Bardwell Baptist Church at 10:00 a.m.

Guest speakers will include Dr. Daniel Howard, MD, General Surgeon, and Courtney LeNeave, Nurse Navigator at Lourdes Hospital. If you have had breast cancer, going through breast cancer, or lost someone due to breast cancer, you are encouraged to attend this brunch in order to raise awareness.

Breast cancer has been a longstanding public health concern in Kentucky. Approximately 590 women die every year from breast cancer in the Commonwealth. Additionally, the American Cancer Society predicts approximately 3,160

new cases of breast cancer will be diagnosed in Kentucky this year.

Early detection and prompt treatment can significantly reduce suffering and death from breast cancer. By law, all health plans must cover mammograms. Medical guidelines strongly recommend that women older than 40 have annual mammograms and women younger than 40 with a family history of breast cancer also have regular screenings.

For more information about breast cancer or screening services, call your local health department or 1-800-4CANCER and if you have any questions regarding the special “Pretty in Pink” Brunch, or are interested in helping out in anyway, please contact Bardwell Baptist Church at 628-3645 for more information and reserve your spot for the luncheon.

County Holds Fiscal Court Meeting

*By Michael Toon
The October 22, 2012, Carlisle County Fiscal Court began with the approval of the previous minutes and the ambulance report.

Wayne Floyd, Director of the Carlisle County Ambulance Service, reported that things were going smoothly in the ambulance service and that the ambulance that was struck by a deer was now back up and running.

Floyd finished his report by stating that he will be attending the World EMS Conference in New Orleans, Louisiana, and has already made arrangements to ride with the New Orleans Ambulance Service and conduct meetings with Ambulance Service Directors from Australia and New Zealand in hopes of acquiring more knowledge concerning rural ambulance services. Floyd will also be meeting with agencies in an effort to find more avenues for grant money for the ambulance service so Carlisle Countians can be better served.

In the coroner's report, Carlisle County Coroner Steve Freeman was not in attendance, but the fiscal court approved his usage of one of the old ambulances that Carlisle County has to transport deceased patients to medical examiner's offices in Madisonville and Louisville. This move would cut down on county transportation costs.

In emergency services, Emergency Services Director Carissa Viniard was not present, but Carlisle County Judge Executive Greg Terry reported that the county will receive 90% of the money to repair the bridge on Mrs. Bobby Yates Road, and the county will receive grants of $6,350.00 for dash cameras for the Carlisle County Sheriff's Department and $2,700 in grant money for the Cunningham Fire Department for self contained breathing apparatuses.

In the jailer's report, Ronny Owens reported there were four inmates in the Hickman County Correctional Facility and four in the Ballard County Detention Center.

In the road report the fiscal court approved the purchase of a John Deere 6330 tractor and a heavy duty bush hog for mowing.

County Road Department Supervisor Jerry Bowman reported on the progress on County Line Road by saying that trees have been cleaned out, and this week a track hoe will be delivered to the site to begin moving dirt in the area.

A representative from NatureChem was on hand to field complaints from the fiscal court concerning their services. NatureChem was a company that promised to reduce mowing for the Carlisle County Road Department by using chemicals that would only disturb weeds, thus eliminating wear and tear on county equipment and man hours that need to be used to mow the roads.

The representative said that with our area not having much of a cold spell this winter and there being no rain at all during the summer, none of the chemicals that were used were as effective as they should have been.

In addition, the county has a tremendous Johnson grass issue, something that was not foreseen by NatureChem. The representative told the fiscal court that with the extreme conditions that the western part of the area faced, the chemistry used was out of line and that caused issues. Furthermore, the representative from NatureChem said he would like another year to prove himself and his company. "We don't sell snake oil, our products work. That's why we have been in business for 26 years. We had an extremely difficult winter, spring and summer, and all of those combined to cause your issues," the representative stated. The representative apologized, and told the fiscal court that next year will be much better and that if the fiscal court sticks with the program, they could see Johnson grass on roadways decrease by 25% each year.

In the Sheriff's Report, Carlisle County Sheriff Steve Perry asked the fiscal court for approval to purchase a 2012 Dodge Charger Patrol Car. The current car is coming out of warranty, and the other cars are nearly paid off. The sheriff's department has paid the county back in mileage each month. The fiscal court approved the purchase.

Sheriff Perry announced that Otis Berry and Jackie Hendrix will be hired as new security staff at the courthouse. Berry comes from the McCracken County Courthouse, where he has already received all of his gun and security training.

Reward Offered for Information Concerning Vandalism

*By Michael Toon
Carlisle Weekly*
The Carlisle County Sheriff's Department and the Carlisle County Fiscal Court are looking for information and offering a $250 reward for any information in the arrest and conviction in two vandalism cases.

Over the weekend, Sheriff Steve Perry reported that a group was partying at the old Laketon Bottoms area, which now serves as the launching spot for the riding trails area the county has newly designated.

During the party, the group cut ruts in the driveway and left numerous alcohol containers strewn about the lot along with cutting ruts in local farmer's fields.

Carlisle County Sheriff Steve Perry is taking these acts of vandalism very seriously. "The county has invested money in this area to make it a place where the people of the county can enjoy the area and generate tourism dollars. We will not let the acts of an irresponsible few ruin it for everyone else. We will be prosecuting whoever is doing these acts to the fullest extent of the law," Perry said.

The Carlisle County Fiscal Court is also offering a $250 reward in the arrest of the person or persons who broke a four foot by four window pane in the Milburn Gym. The Milburn Gym, which was newly renovated with new windows, doors and heating system, is a beacon of pride in the Milburn community as it always has been, and the fiscal court is dedicated to prosecuting those who broke out the window.

If you have any information on the acts of vandalism, please contact the Carlisle County Sheriff's Department at 628-3377 or the Carlisle County Fiscal Court at 628-5451. All tips will remain anonymous.

October 21st Through 27th Proclaimed Safe Schools Week

Greg Terry, Carlisle County Judge Executive, Phillip King, Mayor of Bardwell, and Bobby McGee, Mayor of Arlington, have all signed proclamations establishing October 21-27, 2012 as "Safe Schools Week" in Carlisle County. The Kentucky Center for School Safety is sponsoring this event by encouraging every school across the state to participate in Kentucky Safe Schools Week. The center provides curriculum materials, posters and flyers, Power Points and the ability to log on and participate in the "BULLYING: Be a Part of the

Local officials were asked to sign proclamations to place emphasis on the importance of school safety in Carlisle County Schools. "I am very thankful that our local officials have all recognized the importance of this event by lending their support for this cause through signing proclamations and other words of encouragement," said Randy McCallon, Superintendent of Carlisle County Schools.

Students, parents, teachers, and community members can be active participants by accessing the website www.kysafeschools.org/bullying and completing the associated pledge which underscores caring, understanding, respecting, and educating as areas related to stopping bullying in schools. These words also serve to construct the word CURE representing the need to cure this problem locally, as well as statewide. Pledges are tabulated as they are completed to represent the number of people that have made the commitment to assist in stopping bullying in each county across the state.

Counties are colored different colors on a state map based on the number of pledges submitted in that specific county. When this press release was submitted to local news outlets, Carlisle County had been credited with 502 students, educators, parents, and community members that had completed and submitted the pledge. Mr. McCallon invited all interested stakeholders to be a part of the event by submitting a pledge helping reach the district goal of 1000.

Eight local students have qualified to participate in the highly selective Duke University Talent Identification Program 7th Grade Talent Search. These students were selected based on outstanding performance on a nationally-normed achievement test. They are now eligible to take the SAT or ACT college entrance test and may receive recognition on the state and national levels.

Seventh-grade students from Carlisle County include: David Bone, Chayton Brown, Caleb Buford, Taylor Davis, Trevor Elder, Kayla Hayden, Tyler Hobbs, and Briahna Hooper. These students had exceptional scores on the spring 2011 Kentucky Core Content Test (KCCT) or the Iowa Test of Basic Skills in the areas of reading and/or mathematics.

Airman Brenningmeyer Completes Air Force Basic Training

Airman Adam W. Brenningmeyer, son of Serena Brenningmeyer of Vienna, Illinois and Larry and Wendy (Stermon) Brenningmeyer of Arlington, KY, graduated from basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas, on August 10- 17th, 2012.

The airman completed an intensive, eight and a half week program that included training in military discipline and studies, Air Force core values, physical fitness, and basic warfare principles and skills. Airmen who complete basic training earn four credits toward an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Airman Brenningmeyer spent a month at Port Hueneme in California in technical training before spending ten days of leave at home with his parents during the first half of October. Airman Brenningmeyer is currently stationed at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base in Goldsboro, North Carolina.

He is a 2011 graduate of Vienna High School.

ONE PRESSON'S VIEW

By Kay Presson
Someone left a huge bag of clothes on my back patio. While walking my little dog, Crystal, to the Post Office, I came back through my back-yard. There, in plain view, was the big, black plastic bag. I tried to lift it, however was unable to do so. Some young boys of the neighborhood were passing by, and since they have always been polite and friendly to me, I asked them to look in the bag. They did and said, "Ms. Kay, it's full of clothes." Indeed it was, and I asked them to carry it to my front door, which they graciously did. Folks, I looked through the clothes, which were mostly women's. In fact, there is one dress, size 22, that looks to be very expensive and could be worn as a prom dress. I know whoever left the bag o f clothes probably had my residence confused with someone else's. Will whoever left them contact me at 628-3775. I am going to donate the clothes to Lions Roar.

From Father's Heart To Yours By Ralph and Pamela Hale

Revive Us Again

Having just come from a tremendous revival at Arlington Assembly of God where we saw such mighty miracles of God, the greatest of which is the salvation of souls, I am reminded of the words of the Psalmist in Psalms 85:6 "Wilt thou not revive us again that thy people may rejoice in thee?" As Christians we sometimes get a little dry or stale and need a time of refreshing. Sometimes this is found by getting away from it all, being alone to get in the presence of God, just the two of you in close fellowship. This is so important for believers to spend time with God in fellowship. It is what Adam had in the garden before sin came. It is what God offers to us through Jesus Christ. It is what our Father wants with us every day. However, we often times neglect this call of God to come away alone to be with Him. This is when the revival services of the church come in so powerfully to help steer us back to the glory of God. I remember when I was a boy the churches where I grew up would hold services every summer. They would have afternoon and evening services and on Sunday three services. They would have a starting date for the services but no ending date. These revivals would go on for two or three weeks and sometimes months before they would stop. But one thing was sure there would be revival and souls would be saved! Hallelujah! Twice in my time of ministry have I seen revivals go for two months. We experienced these same amazing miracles as we did at Arlington. But on those occasions there was no plan to go that long just a moving of God that stirred a hunger in people for the true and living God and they just wanted more of Him. Maybe your life has been some what dry lately. Maybe you just aren't getting what you need spiritually. Perhaps you haven't given God the time you should have or perhaps you haven't answered His call to come apart alone for a while to be with Him. Often times it isn't just one single thing that gets us in a dry place but several things compounded, things just sort of build up without us even noticing what's taking place. The reviving we get from God is what we need. The fellowship God gets from us is what He wants. So you see the revival is really God's idea to get us back on track or just help keep us on track with Him. There is no doubt this world is in a mess and it looks like there is no fixing it. With presidential elections coming up a lot of hope is placed on one person or another but people cannot fix things nor can they bring us the kind of refreshing we need. Every Christian should vote for the candidate that stands for things that are morally correct, such as pro-life and God ordained family. But to expect a person to give revival to this nation is a false hope. Only Jesus Christ can do that! If Christians will begin to pray, vote right, and seek God with our whole heart, we can see a reviving of the United States. (II Chron. 7:14) If individuals will begin to do the same we can see that spiritual revival in our own personal lives. "Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me." (Psalm 138:7a) Just begin to cry out to Jesus and the Holy Ghost will respond to your cry! Be revived!

This week's inspiration

This week's inspiration from scripture verses Mark 10: 35-45: In these scripture verses, the Sons of Thunder, James and John, think it would be wonderful to be called great. One of them wants to sit on the left and the other on the right. When you think you are the greatest, it's easy to make demands with arrogant behavior. However, neither of them knows the true meaning of greatness. The perils of desiring greatness are a life of illusion and a state of confusion. James and John are confused about the path that lies ahead. Jesus tells them that He cannot grant special places in heaven as only God can do this. Jesus also tells them that to be 'first', you must be the servant to others. Servant leadership happens when we place the needs of others before our own. Jesus is the model of this approach. None of us are the greatest but we serve a great God. To serve others with our help and skills takes a heart full of grace.

In the Pork competition, Big Bubba's BBQ took first place with The Spice is Right team and the Smokin' and Turnin' Team tying for second place.

In the brisket competition, Pirate Pork took first place with the boys from Coyote Creek in Bardwell taking second and The Spice is Right taking third place.

The overall Grand Champion of the 2012 CarlisleFest was the one man Smokin' and Turnin' Team of Dwayne Byard of Clarksville, Tennessee.

The Reserve Champion of the 2012 CarlisleFest was The Spice is Right Team of Paul Vienneau of Clarksville, Tennessee.

In the first ever CarlisleFest Cat Quest Cat Fishing Tournament, onlookers, many experiencing a cat fishing tournament weigh-in were surprised and shocked at the size of some of the monsters of the Mississippi and Ohio Rivers that were pulled out of the competitor's boats.

The biggest fish award went to Mr. David Elliott from Milburn, Kentucky. David pulled out a fish that weighed 62 pounds. That fish alone took home a $300 prize.

The husband and wife team of Joe Ben and Brooke Hogancamp were looking to celebrate their wedding anniversary in style with a first place lead, as they hauled in a combined weight of 96.5 pounds. However, Hogancamp's friends, Clay and Clint Cannon, were the last boat to check in, and they narrowly edged out team Hogancamp, for a first place finish of 98 pounds.

The compete order of finish, along with weights are as follows: 1. Clay and Clint Cannon, 98 pounds; 2. Joe Ben and Brooke Hogancamp, 96.5 pounds; 3. Eric and Kelly Aldridge, 93.5 pounds, including a 39 pound fish; 4. Josh and Ricky West, 80.5 pounds; 5. David Elliott, 79 pounds, including the biggest fish of 62 pounds; 6. (Three team tie at 73 pounds) Glynn Grogan and Walter Hays, Jerry Whitehead and John Troutt and Russ Devore and Robin Ragan; 7. Steve and Nathan Weathers, 49.5 pounds; 8. Mike Massey and Brandon Lovelace, 46.5 pounds; 9. Joseph and Marsh Hunt, 36 pounds.

Carlisle County Judge Executive Greg Terry and Deputy Judge Executive Brandi Webb wanted to thank the community's support in making the 2012 CarlisleFest the best ever. "We would like to give a special thanks to Robin Phelps and "Those Guys" for performing and providing the music for the evening, John Mike and Melinda Ford for their help with the BBQ competition and all those who judged the BBQ. We also would like to thank Glynn Grogan, David Elliott, and Brian Grogan for their help with the fishing tournament and all the BBQ teams, Cornhole Teams, Fishing teams, and vendors who pitched in and made this year so successful. We are already looking forward to CarlisleFest 2013," Carlisle County Judge Executive Greg Terry said.

The 2012 CarlisleFest ended with the first ever CarlisleFest MudBogs, where proceeds from the event went to the Carlisle County Rescue Squad. Laura Pender of the Carlisle County Rescue Squad wanted to thank all of those who helped out the rescue squad. "The rescue squad would like to thank Eric and Mitch Rowland for their help and participation in the event, the Carlisle County Road Department for all their help, John and Melinda Ford for their donation, the Carlisle County Fiscal Court and Fair Board for letting us use their grounds and most importantly, the people of Carlisle County who came out and supported us. Thank you," Pender said.
